Making God's Love Visible

Please join in reading and singing those parts of the service printed in bold.

* When this symbol precedes an element of the service, please rise in body or spirit.

During the five weeks from July 25 through August 22, our gospel readings are from the sixth chapter of the gospel of John, and all are directly related to bread. Beginning with the feeding of the 5000, we hear Jesus remind us of the manna, the bread from heaven that fed the ancient Hebrew people in the desert, and distinguish it from the bread of life, the spiritual bread that was Jesus. "I am the Bread of Life," "I am the Living Bread," "If anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever." "For the bread of God is that which comes down out of heaven, and gives life to the world." Like the bread in our scripture, the breads in our world can take many forms, just a few of which you will see on our communion table over the coming weeks.

* HYMN 618

O Love, How Deep, How Broad, How High

DEO GRACIAS

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Gracious God,

It's too much.

Too much to do.

Too much to say.

Too much to handle.

We fail to withdraw from our duties.

We neglect those we most cherish.

We think only of our foolish selves.

There is no one who does good,
without your sustaining spirit.

You are enough for us.

Therefore:

Call us back to your light.

Ground us in your love.

Restore in us your faith.

Bring us back together once more to be one body in service to you...

SILENT PRAYER

ASSURANCE OF FORGIVENESS

KYRIE

Lord, have mer - cy. Christ, have mer - cy.

Lord, have mer - cy on us.

*PASSING OF THE PEACE

*CONGREGATIONAL RESPONSE

O to grace how great a debtor
daily I'm constrained to be!
Let that grace now, like a fetter,
bind my wandering heart to thee.
Prone to wander, Lord, I feel it,
prone to leave the God I love;
here's my heart; O take and seal it;
seal it for thy courts above.

This is Stanza 3 of Hymn 475, Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing (NETTLETON).

PROCLAIMING THE WORD

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

FIRST SCRIPTURE READING John 6:1–15
This is the Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

A CONVERSATION WITH YOUNG DISCIPLES

SECOND SCRIPTURE READING Ephesians 3:14–21
The grass withers, the flower fades; the word of the Lord endures forever.

Prayer of Dedication

Offertory If with All Your Hearts from Elijah Felix Mendelssohn
Nicholas Music, soloist

If with all your hearts ye truly seek me,
Ye shall ever surely find me.
Thus, saith our God.
Oh! That I knew where I might find Him,
That I might even come before His presence.

* Doxology

OLD HUNDREDTH

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below;
Praise God, above ye heavenly host.
Creator, Christ, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE AND THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

CLOSING VOLUNTARY

Sonata II in C minor for Organ, Op. 65 Felix Mendelssohn
Allegro maestoso e vivace

Please remain seated until the conclusion of the closing voluntary. The ushers will dismiss the congregation from the back of the Sanctuary forward.

Use these offertory moments to savor your gratitude for the abundance of God's love — and to consider your own response in loving service. As you consider making your offering, remember that the church's regular expenses continue in these difficult times. And the community around us needs your financial support: your faithful giving is like the breath of life to mission programs we love, neighbors in need, members who are hurting. Thank you for your faithful generosity!

Meditation and Labyrinth Walking. As a part of our Summer Festival of Worship, on July 29 and August 26, you are invited to the home of Kurt and Kathy Hillig (7654 W Ellsworth Rd., Ann Arbor) to walk the labyrinth they have made on their property. Come anytime between 6:00 – 8:00 p.m. It takes about 20–30 minutes to go from your car to the labyrinth and back. Signs will guide you from the parking area to the labyrinth. There is a guided meditation podcast available to use while walking, or consider using that another time for a meditative moment. Being outside in silence in nature is very meditative. Note that tick season is in full gear so please wear closed-toe shoes and long pants. Questions? Contact Rev. Rogers, (mrogers@firstpresbyterian.org). The guided meditation (put together by Rev. Mares) can be found at <https://www.faihb.com>.

WELCOME TO WORSHIP!

STAYING CONNECTED, our theme for this summer, invites us all to be linked together in a broad community of people, joined by the energy of a holy curiosity and an indefatigable courage. As the coronavirus lessens its grip, and we emerge into a new hybrid existence, it is vital that we re-connect, stay connected, or connect afresh. It takes curiosity and courage to remain connected to each other. Curiosity to see how we can creatively connect to one another, and courage to do it safely amidst a changing viral situation. This summer, we will explore ways we stay connected to the things that matter most. For some, it will be getting out for some fresh air and a brisk walk. For many, it will mean staying in touch virtually via livestream, Zoom, or even phone conversations. For others, it will mean traveling and reconnecting with family and friends whom we haven't seen in the flesh in a long time. All the while, First Pres will be an active community, vibrant and alive, connecting all to the power and grace of the God of all creation.
