

TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

October 24, 2021 • 9:30 a.m.

And Open Our Eyes to Behold Love's Peace
Jan Richardson

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN
Ann Arbor | Michigan

Making God's Love Visible

Please join in reading and singing those parts of the service printed in bold.

* When this symbol precedes an element of the service, please rise in body or spirit.

Soaring overhead in our sanctuary is a brilliantly hued representation of the prayers of the people.

Each flash of color is an origami crane. And inside each bird is written the name of a church member who was prayed for as the bird was folded. Yet the focus of this artwork is larger than any individual or congregation. The work – made up of over 3500 cranes – also marks International Day of Peace, September 21. On this date, people around the globe are encouraged to participate in acts of peace. And in addition, these peace cranes support our annual giving campaign, Peace by Piece.

The Call to Worship was adapted during a recent Worship Lab by our children from work by Carol Penner, leadinginworship.com.

The Prayer of Confession, adapted from Isaiah 35:1–10, is by Kimberly Bracken Long, Feasting on the Word Worship Companion.

We hide our eyes from your presence.

We do not listen to your word.

We are lifeless when we ought to dance,

Forgive us, O Lord.

Speak peace to our fearful hearts,
strengthen our weak hands,

and make firm our feeble knees

as we seek to follow in your holy way...

We are glad you are here! Please sign our Friendship Pad. If you are worshiping with us via YouTube, Facebook, or radio, either click <https://bit.ly/2Rlig2l> to let us know that you joined us for worship today or sign the pad on our website.

This week's Growing in God's Love Bible story is "What Does God Want." It can be found on page 144.

Worship Lab, a hands-on experience for our youngest disciples, is a place where children can ask questions and dig deeper into the various parts of Presbyterian Worship. Children will learn what they have to offer to worship as they discover and understand their place in the Body of Christ on Sunday mornings. Worship Lab immediately follows A Conversation with Young Disciples.

Use these offertory moments to savor your gratitude for the abundance of God's love — and to consider your own response in loving service.
