CALL TO CONFESSION

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Gracious God,

We yearn to travel new dimensions of your love,

Yet we do not always trust that our cells are transforming.

We do not look beyond our own generation.

We see injustice but are too afraid to risk our own peace

In order to sing songs of freedom and progress.

We are spiritually dying and need your healing.

May we sit and pray to you for guidance.

Teach us your ways of faith, hope and love.

And may a piece of your peace be with us always...

SILENT PRAYER

KYRIE

Lord, have mer - cy, Christ, have mer - cy, Lord, have mer - cy up - on us.

ASSURANCE OF FORGIVENESS

* PASSING OF THE PEACE

OFFERING OF TITHES AND GIFTS

Offertory O Love Elaine Hagenberg

Chancel Choir and Judith Vander Weg, cello

O Love that will not let me go, O Love I rest my weary soul in Thee;
I give thee back the life I owe, that in thy ocean depths its flow may richer, fuller be.

O Joy, that seeks me through the pain, O Joy I cannot close my heart to thee;
I trace the rainbow through the rain, and feel the promise is not vain that morn shall tearless be.

This week's Growing in God's Love Bible story, Who Was Invited? Who Came?, is found on page 222.

Use these offertory moments to savor your gratitude for the abundance of God's love — and to consider your own response in loving service.

The Session has called a Special Meeting of the Congregation of First Presbyterian Church, Ann Arbor, for Sunday, June 5, 2022, at 10:30 a.m. (or at the end of the worship service) to present a call to Rev. Mark Mares to become the Associate Pastor of Faith Formation, Youth and Families. Since August 2019, Rev. Mark Mares has served with distinction as our Assistant Minister for Youth and Families. The Congregational Meeting will be offered both in-person and via Zoom. Following the Congregational Meeting, there will be a reception to celebrate Rev. Mares’ new and expanded role.

When a friend, loved one, or colleague passes away, we remember them in unique ways — it’s how we process our grief. Whether it is doing something they loved, going to a favorite place of theirs, or cherishing something they owned, we find ways to lean into the unexpressed love we have for them. This summer, our First Pres staff will endeavor to wear fun sneakers in honor of Rev. Matthew J. Warfield. Pastor Matthew J. was an avid sneaker head and even wore sparkly shoes during his ordination service. His shoes not only brought him joy, but were another way for him to express his personality. Join us and wear your favorite sneakers to worship this summer!

We are glad you are here! Please sign our Friendship Pad. If you are a guest with us today, we encourage you to wear a rose window button that you can find just outside the Sanctuary (or Monteith Hall) in a basket. Wearing this helps us know that you are new among us so that we can reach out to you with a fuller welcome. If you are worshipping with us via YouTube, Facebook, or radio, please sign the pad on our website to let us know you are here or you may click here:

Adult Faith Formation Classes at 11:00

Exploring the Faith will meet in the French Room at 11:00 a.m. for "Exploring the Faith Over 195 Years: Rev. MacDonald." Jeanette Kibler will talk about 19th century Scottish author and orator George MacDonald, influencer of C. S. Lewis and J. R. R. Tolkien, and who outsold Charles Dickens in his time. All other churches in Ann Arbor closed their doors so people could come to hear him preach at our church in 1873. MacDonald was the turning point in Presbyterian theology from the harsh God of Calvinism to the God who loves and forgives and longs to bless us.

First Friends will meet in the Lewis Room at 11:00 a.m.

Each year, the Congregational Nominating Committee seeks to bring new faces, new experiences and new energy to our leadership.

What does Jesus say about leadership? Jesus taught his disciples not to emulate the Gentile rulers who exercised authority over them. Instead, He taught that in order for us to be leaders, we must become servants first.

At First Pres we have two groups of servant-leaders: Deacons and Elders. The members of these groups are living examples of turning faith into action and hearing into doing. With the arrival of our new Lead Pastor, David Prentice-Hyers, we all have an opportunity to engage, serve, and embrace the energy of this new chapter in the life of First Pres.

Deacons are the caregivers of the congregation, serving in this role is both a privilege and a blessing. It is also an opportunity for spiritual growth and fellowship. As a Deacon, you will get to know other church members in a deeper way. Our Elders lead the on-going activities and functions of the church through the Session, our governing body. The Session is made up of dedicated church members who have been elected and ordained into a leadership role. Our Presbyterian Church takes its name from the Greek word for elder, presbuteros. These individuals reap the rewards of being involved in the life-affirming work and decision-making which benefits our congregation. For more on what it means to be an Elder or a Deacon go to the "About" tab on the First Pres website and click on the link for "Session (Governing Body)" or "Being a Deacon." If you have more questions, please contact Bill McPherson at wbmcperson@comcast.net. Use the link below to nominate yourself or another individual for consideration.

Joyfully introducing our new Lead Pastor, the Rev. David Prentice-Hyers!

The Rev. David Prentice-Hyers was unanimously elected to be Lead Pastor of First Presbyterian Church by a vote of the congregation on Sunday, May 1. His ministry with us begins on Sunday, June 12.

Dave was born in North Carolina and grew up in east Tennessee. He received his BA from Presbyterian College, Clinton, South Carolina, in 1994, and his M. Div. from Columbia Theological Seminary in 2001. Dave was ordained in 2003 and also holds a certification in Clinical Pastoral Education.

Rev. Prentice-Hyers served as a probationary minister at First Presbyterian Church of Asheville, North Carolina, in 1997; as a probationary minister at Troon Old Parish in Troon, Scotland, 1999–2000; as Associate Pastor at First Presbyterian Church of Waco, Texas, from 2003–2011; and as Director of Campus Ministry at First Presbyterian Church of Ann Arbor, 2011–2013. Most recently he served as Senior Pastor at Troon Old Parish where he has been since 2013. Dave was the Campus Minister here when his wife, Mary Elizabeth (Mel), was in the Resident Ministry program in the same cohort as Evans McGowan and Brennan Pearson Blue. Dave and Mel have two sons, eight-year old Finlay, and five-year old Angus. As much as they enjoyed the challenge of ministry in Scotland, they are excited to return and continue their journey in ministry here.
