This hymn is found on the preceding page of this bulletin. As you listen to the hymn, we encourage you to read along and reflect on the text.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

O God – our guide, our companion, our guardian, our destination –
We confess that we have been slow to recognize You along the way of our journey:
unready to reconfigure our lives to the shape of Your transforming Word, unwilling to hear Your voice speaking from our consciences, unable to let go of things that have kept us from You and from each other.
Humble us, we pray, to acknowledge who we are.
Steady us, we pray, to change what must be changed.
Soften us, we pray, to the struggles of those around us.
Strengthen us, we pray, for the work that must be done.
Enliven us, we pray, with joy to heal us, restore us, complete us, as we pause in the shelter of this sanctuary to welcome You as guest in our hearts and in our days –

SILENT PRAYER

Please know that, in recording all the parts of this liturgy — spoken, sung and played — we have carefully observed responsible norms of social distancing.

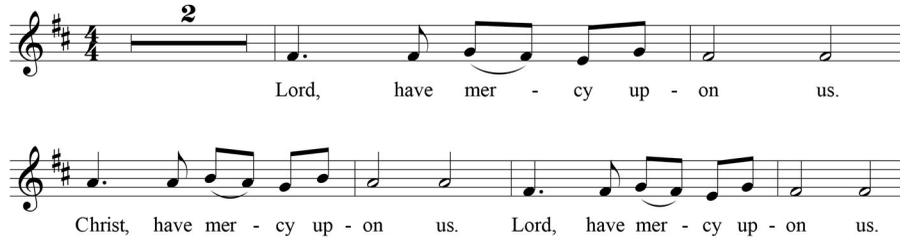

Please join in reading those parts of the service printed in bold. It is not yet safe to sing together as a congregation. (The choral ensemble sings with special singers' masks.) As you listen to the hymns and responses, we encourage you to read along and reflect on the text.

* When this symbol precedes an element of the service, please rise in body or spirit.

Today we welcome our new organist to the FPC staff, David Hufford. You may listen to David's Mini-Organ Recital by visiting the FPC YouTube page.

PROCLAIMING THE WORD

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

FIRST SCRIPTURE READING Acts 4:32–35

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

A CONVERSATION WITH YOUNG DISCIPLES

SECOND SCRIPTURE READING Luke 24:13–35

The grass withers, the flower fades;

the word of the Lord endures forever.

SERMON The Difference Between Two Kinds of Errand

At First Pres, we strive to use inclusive language for God.

The use of only masculine nouns and pronouns for God and of masculine generic terms for humankind has hidden the rich feminine imagery for God and God's people in scripture. The rediscovery of the complementarity of female and male metaphors in the Bible and the literature of the early church forbids Christians to settle for literary poverty in the midst of literary riches.

RESPONDING AND SEALING

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

In keeping with the reverence of worship, photos may be taken after the service.

Hannah and Jareth Glanda present their daughter Madison Ann Glanda, born March 19, 2020, for baptism.

* Affirmation of Faith The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

Thanksgiving over the Water and Baptism

Hymn 486

Child of Blessing, Child of Promise

KINGDOM

As you listen to the response, we encourage you to read along and reflect on the text.

Child of blessing, child of promise, baptized
Child of love, our love's ex - pres - sion, love's cre - with the Spir - it's sign, with this wa - ter God has a - tion, loved in - deed! Fresh from God, re - fresh our sealed you un - to love and grace di - vine.

spir - its; in - to joy and laugh - ter lead.

It is important to remember that baptism is not so much something we do, but rather something that God does. In Baptism God claims us and names us as one of God's own children. Baptism is both God's gift and our acceptance of the gift of God's saving grace. We baptize in response to the God who first loved us, and we remember that we did not choose God, but God chose us.

OFFERING OF TITHES AND GIFTS

Prayer of Dedication

Use these offertory moments to savor your gratitude for the abundance of God's love — and to consider your own response in loving service. As you consider making your offering, remember that the church's regular expenses continue in these difficult times. And the community around us needs your financial support: your faithful giving is like the breath of life to mission programs we love, neighbors in need, members who are hurting. Thank you for your faithful generosity!

Ways to give: online on the First Pres homepage ... via "Text-to-Give" (855-904-1523) ... use our Give+ app ... put a check in the mail ... or scan the QR code below.

Offertory

On Emmaus' Journey

arr. John Ferguson

Who are you who walk in sorrow down Emmaus' barren road,
Hearts distraught and hope defeated, bent beneath grief's crushing load?
Nameless mourners, we will join you, we who also mourn our dead.
We have stood by graves unyielding, eaten death's bare, bitter bread.

Who is this who joins our journey, walking with us stride by stride?
Unknown Stranger, can you fathom depths of grief for one who died?
Then the wonder! When we told you how our dreams to dust have turned,
Then you opened wide the scriptures till our hearts burned!

Who are you? Our hearts are opened, who are you who breaks the bread?
Christ the victim, now the victor, living, risen from the dead!
Great companion on our journey, still surprise us with your grace!
Make each day a new Emmaus; on our hearts your image trace!

Who are we who travel with you on our way through life to death?
Women, men, the young, the aging, wakened by the Spirit's breath!
At the font you claim and name us, born of water and the Word.
At the table still you feed us, host us as our risen Lord!

Alleluia! is the Easter hymn we sing!
Take our life, our joy, our worship as the gift of love we bring.
You have formed us all one people called from every land and race.
Make your church your servant body, sent to share your healing grace!

* Doxology

LASST UNS ERFREUEN

As you listen to the response, we encourage you to read along and reflect on the text.

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow.

Praise God, all creatures here below. Alleluia, alleluia!

Praise God in Jesus fully known:

Creator, Word, and Spirit one. Alleluia, alleluia!

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE AND THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

WELCOME TO WORSHIP!

Eastertide at First Pres – Held By Baptism

Jesus himself was baptized by John in the Jordan River – but his only mention of baptism was in his final appearance in the Gospel of Matthew (28:19–20): "Go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit..." Maybe one sign of the holiness of what we've come to call a sacrament is that its assurance of God's company in our lives touches us on a level deeper than words. "And remember," Jesus said, "I am with you always, to the end of time."

For us, baptism is foundational to the family of God: a mark of grace upon each life touched by the waters, a sign of welcome into beloved community. At First Pres this spring, the season of Eastertide will be bracketed by celebrations of this most joyful sacrament: with the Glanda family today, April 11, and the Stelter family on May 23. These weeks will help us, each and all, to feel held by grace in the Spirit-ed company of the One who is with us always and forever as we consider how to be faithful to our mission to "make God's love visible" in our community and in the world.

Complete job descriptions are available at <https://www.firstpresbyterian.org/about/staff-leadership/job-opportunities>.

First Pres strives to be as diverse as God's kingdom, and as wide and hospitable as the Spirit's embrace. Here, we don't all look, act, or pray alike. God knows we do not all think alike. We Presbyterians do not read the Bible the same way. Our questions are different, our burdens are diverse, and our aspirations are distinct. But every Sunday, we worship as one, unified by the love and grace of our Lord Jesus Christ. We worship a living God who calls us to love and support one another. Together we can do marvelous things – and grow closer to God and one another along the way. Come visit us – everyone is welcome! If you are new to us we invite you to visit and explore our many programs and service opportunities.

2022 Nominations for Church Leadership

The 2021 Congregational Nominating Committee is tasked with, and has begun to discern, through recommendations and the power of the Holy Spirit, whom God calls to serve First Pres as Elders, Deacons and Congregational Nominating Committee members, with terms beginning in January of 2022. We humbly seek insight and help from congregation members to identify potential church leaders. We seek to represent the diversity of our congregation in ages, stages of faith development, ethnicity/race, gender and sexual orientation.

For those who may be interested and want more information to assist in their decision to suggest members for consideration, Elder and Deacon job descriptions are found at www.firstpresbyterian.org. Those who are selected will receive training at times TBD, beginning in September, whether virtually or in person, and based upon the status of Covid-19 at that time.

According to the Book of Order, those called to these ministries should be persons of faith, discipleship, and love of Jesus as Lord and Savior. Those suggested should be members of at least two years, and have given of their time, talent, and if possible, their financial means in some way, at least in the few years prior to election. The Congregational Meeting for election will be in September of 2021. The terms begin in January of 2022 and are:

- Three years for Elders and Deacons

Please indicate your name, their name, and the position, and why you are submitting the name of this person, and the qualities that you believe make this member a good candidate.

If you have further questions, please contact Chairperson, Katie Parker, Elder (734-218-0033; mgobluebarn47@yahoo.com), or any of the CNC members noted below. We are all happy to speak with you about your questions.
