* CALL TO WORSHIP

Gathered, in a community of shared faith and feelings,
we are united in the presence of the One who bids us come and who does not hold back love.

We come to worship the One who offers mercy,
who teaches unity,
and who promises peace.
Come let us worship the Lord.

When a Single Word Is Spoken

NETTLETON

CALL TO CONFESSION

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

God our creator,
long-suffering, full of grace and truth, you create us from nothing and give us life.
You do not turn your face from us, nor cast us aside.
We confess that we have sinned against you and against our neighbour.
We have wounded your love and blurred your image in us.
Restore us for the sake of your creation, and bring us to heavenly joy, in Jesus Christ our Lord...

SILENT PRAYER

KYRIE

UKRAINE

The Children's Choir will sing the Kyrie first and then the congregation will join them.

ASSURANCE OF FORGIVENESS

* PASSING OF THE PEACE

You are invited to share signs with one another of the peace we experience as God's people. Greet one another saying, "The peace of Christ be with you," and respond, "And also with you."

* CONGREGATIONAL RESPONSE

O to grace how great a debtor daily I'm constrained to be!
Let that grace now, like a fetter,
bind my wandering heart to thee.
Prone to wander, Lord, I feel it,
prone to leave the God I love;
here's my heart; O take and seal it;
seal it for thy courts above.

This is Stanza 3 of Hymn 475, Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing (NETTLETON).

* Affirmation of Faith The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

If I Forget, Yet God Remembers
Chancel Choir

Daniel Pederson

If I forget, yet God remembers!
If these hands of mine cease from their clinging,
Yet the hands divine hold me so firmly that I cannot fall.
And if sometimes I am too tired to call for him to help me,
Then he reads the prayer unspoken in my heart,
And lifts my care.

* Doxology

LASST UNS ERFREUEN

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow.
Praise God, all creatures here below. Alleluia, alleluia!
Praise God above ye heavenly host.
Creator, Christ, and Holy Ghost. Alleluia, alleluia!
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

* Prayer of Dedication

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE AND THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

EVACUATION DRILL

A Note About Today's Evacuation Drill:

As a good Boy Scout would say: Be Prepared! In that spirit, we will perform a short evacuation drill at the end of today's service. While we do not want to scare anyone, we do want this drill to be taken seriously, just as we had to when we participated in fire drills at school. Following the voluntary you will hear an alarm, and ushers will move into place to direct people down the aisles to an exit. Once outside, move quickly away from the building, so others are not trapped inside, waiting to get out. Move quickly and quietly.

And, while this is an evacuation drill, those with mobility issues will be helped out of the Sanctuary, but for safety's sake, we will not carry them outside as part of this drill. We do ask everyone else to evacuate completely to the outdoors; Fellowship Hour will be starting on the Circle Terrace.

Parents of children in classrooms should meet their children in the white sorority building's parking lot, next door. Their teachers will remain with them, until you arrive. This too is part of our evacuation drill, and what you can expect should the need to evacuate ever arise.

For those with mobility issues, we will ask you to remain seated until the sanctuary has emptied. Two reasons for this: first, we can move people more quickly and safely, from inside to outside, if the flow moves at a steady pace. And secondly, while the majority of people exit, others trained to help, will be able to move into a place near you, to help you exit quickly and safely as well.

We thank you for your attention in this exercise, and also for any feedback you can offer. Our goal is to keep our members safe in a variety of circumstances. Today's exercise should help us in achieving that goal.

WELCOME TO WORSHIP!

We are glad you are here! Please sign our Friendship Pad. If you are a guest with us today, we encourage you to wear a rose window button that you can find just outside the Sanctuary in a basket. Wearing this button helps us know that you are new among us so that we can reach out to you with a fuller welcome. If you are with us via YouTube, Facebook, or radio, please sign the pad on our website.

Join us for a time of fellowship on the Circle Terrace immediately following the Evacuation Drill.

The Legacy Partner Workgroup invites you to attend an educational session on estate planning and will preparation today at 10:45 a.m., in the Curtis Room. Importantly, there will be no 'ask to give' at this event! The goal is to provide information to help ease the often-stressful responsibility of facing one's own mortality, so that loved ones are cared for, and affairs are properly settled. Our presenter is Michael Crowley from Conlin, McKenney & Philbrick, P.C. This session will help answer questions such as:

- Do I need a will?
- Do I need to revise my will?
- When can I just use an online will vs needing professional assistance?

Annual Giving: Mosaic of Hope celebrates the vibrancy of our church and the incredible gifts that each one of us brings to our community. From late September through October, we will hear stories of how our financial contributions form a mosaic of hope at First Pres. Out of the gifts of a variety of individual members, friends and families, God is at work, creating a colorful mosaic portrait of our congregation in action. Each commitment allows us to carry out our mission as an inclusive and diverse faith community with confidence, knowing that as we come together, we will deepen our faith and expand the impact of our worship, Christian education and community care. As part of the First Pres community, you are invited to make a generous pledge commitment to our church out of your financial resources and individual talents. The costs of ministry are increasing; we all know the impact of inflation. Please consider increasing your pledge or contribution for 2023, remembering that every amount helps. Please fill out both the pledge and opportunity to serve forms and return via email, online, mail or drop them in the offering plate on Sunday. After you make your pledge or commitment, you are invited to place an individual tile on the large Mosaic of Hope display in the Sanctuary. Please contact Anna Miller, First Pres Finance Manager, with questions, 734-662-4466.
