CALL TO WORSHIP

One: In the beginning when God created the heavens and the earth, the earth was a formless void and darkness covered the face of the deep. A wind from God swept over the face of the waters.

All: Then God formed humanity from the dust of the ground, and breathed into their nostrils the breath of life; and the humans became living beings.

One: God's Spirit will be poured out on all flesh; sons and daughters shall prophesy, old men shall dream dreams, and young men shall see visions.

All: All will be filled with the Holy Spirit, which pours God's love into our hearts.

One: Let us worship God.

* HYMN On Pentecost They Gathered AURELIA

On Pentecost they gathered quite early in the day,
A band of Christ's disciples, to worship, sing, and pray.
A mighty wind came blowing, filled all the swirling air,
And tongues of fire a-glowing inspired each person there.

The people all around them were startled and amazed
To understand their language, as Christ the Lord they praised.
What universal message, what great good news was here?
That Christ, once dead, is risen to vanquish all our fear.

God pours the Holy Spirit on all who would believe,
On women, men, and children who would God's grace receive.
That Spirit knows no limit, bestowing life and power.
The church, formed and re-forming, responds in every hour.

O Spirit, sent from heaven on that day long ago,
Rekindle faith among us in all life's ebb and flow.
O give us ears to listen and tongues aflame with praise,
So folk of every nation glad songs of joy shall raise.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

God of life, you give us breath and hope and reason for living.
You surround us with beauty and challenge and opportunity.
In return for all your great gifts, we are timid in our testimony and lifeless in our obedience. We look away from those in need, squander our talents, and fail to live in the transforming power of your Spirit. We speak words of derision and act in ways that are divisive. In your mercy, open us once again to the life-giving power of your Spirit. Replace fear with unbounded trust in you.
Unite us with one another, that all may glorify you and live life abundantly.

SILENT CONFESSION

ASSURANCE OF GOD'S FORGIVENESS

 PASSING OF THE PEACE

You are invited to share signs with one another of the peace we experience as forgiven people. Greet one another saying, "The peace of Christ be with you," and respond, "And also with you."

 CONGREGATIONAL RESPONSE

Spirit of the living God, fall afresh on me;

Spirit of the living God, fall afresh on me.

Melt me, mold me, fill me, use me.

Spirit of the living God, fall afresh on me.

ANTHEM

Come Down, O Love Divine

arr. John Leavitt

Come down, O Love divine;
Seek thou this soul of mine,
And visit it with your own ardor glowing;
O Comforter, draw near;
Within my heart appear
And kindle it, thy holy flame bestowing.

Oh, let it freely burn,
Till worldly passions turn
To dust and ashes in its heat consuming;
And let thy glorious light
Shine ever on my sight,
And clothe me round, the while my path illuming.

And so the yearning strong,
With which the soul will long,
Shall far outpass the pow'r of human telling;
No soul can guess his grace
Till it become the place
Where in the Holy Spirit makes his dwelling.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE AND THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

Pentecost, a great festival Sunday of the Christian church, is 50 days after Easter. It commemorates the gift of the Holy Spirit, descending upon the disciples gathered in Jerusalem. Red is the color of Pentecost, pointing to the "flames, as of fire," described in the second chapter of Acts. The dove also is a symbol of Pentecost. Empowered by the Spirit, the disciples take the gospel from Jerusalem into all the world, so Pentecost sometimes is referred to as the birthday of the church.

The Pentecost Offering is received today. This annual PCUSA offering supports children at risk, youth, and young adult programs. Forty percent of this offering stays locally to support the work of the Cass Community Center program for homeless youth. Checks may be made payable to First Pres with a "Pentecost Offering" notation in the memo line. Special envelopes are available for your use.

Join us for Coffee Hour in the Social Hall immediately following the 9:30 a.m. worship service. Cookie bakers are Betsy DiMaggio, Kim Byers, and Linda Tubbs. Child-friendly, peanut-free purchased snacks are available for children. We are proud to serve Fair Trade coffee at First Pres in support of fair wages for coffee farmers. Coffee may be purchased in the Church Office during regular business hours.

Coffee Hour today is sponsored by the First Pres Veterans' Group who have prepared a commemorative slide presentation. Chocolate chip cookies are provided in honor of the late John Laird, who served as a fighter pilot in WW2. John, who died May 7, 2015, was our longest active member. He was a member of First Presbyterian his whole life. Chocolate chip cookies were his favorite.

A brief service of remembrance will take place in the Memorial Garden immediately following the 11:00 a.m. service today. Names of those interred in the garden will be read with note of those who were veterans. All are invited to attend.
