PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Most Holy God, we cannot stand in the fullness of your glory. Our lives are faulty and frail. We do not live in holiness but in sin. When we try to live rightly, we fail, and too often we do not even try. God of mercy, cleanse us, forgive us, and free us by your grace. Sanctify us by your Holy Spirit, that we may grow in holiness and in the service of Jesus Christ our Lord.

* CONGREGATIONAL RESPONSE

To Thee, great One in Three,
The highest praises be, hence evermore!

ANTHEM In the Year That King Uzziah Died

David McK. Williams

In the year that king Uzziah died, I saw also the Lord sitting on a throne, high, and lifted up, and his train filled the temple. Above it stood the seraphim: each one had six wings; with twain he covered his face, with twain he covered his feet, and with twain he did fly. And one cried unto another, and said, Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory. And the posts of the door moved at the voice of him that cried and the house was filled with smoke. Then said I, woe is me! for I am undone; because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for mine eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts, then flew one of the seraphim, having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from off the altar; and he laid it upon my mouth, and said, Lo, this hath touched thy lips, and thine iniquity is taken away, and thy sin is purged. Also, I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send and who will go for us? Then said I, Here am I, send me. Isaiah 6:1-8

* Affirmation of Faith The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

About the prelude: There are no better representations of the Trinity than the Trio Sonatas of Bach. Only in music can we appreciate three ongoing ideas at the same time. In these sonatas for organ, Bach composes three independent and beautiful lines of music, which, when played together, reinforce each other. Together they describe the Trinity in ways words cannot. Composed as he was also working on his cantatas, Bach composed these works for a secular reason, as exercises to help his son (and countless future generations of organists) improve their accuracy in playing multiple musical lines at once. The number three appears many times in the Trio Sonatas, for example having three movements, movements consisting of three parts, triplets, or even the first movement of the trio sonata we hear today, opens with parallel thirds. Discovering the mathematical properties of Bach’s Trio Sonatas is an ongoing research project at the University of Michigan.
