Making God's Love Visible

1 Lift ev - ery voice and sing till earth and heav - en
 2 Ston - y the road we trod, bit - ter the chas - tening
 3 God of our wea - ry years, God of our si - lent ring, ring with the har - mo - nies of lib - er - rod, felt in the days when hope un - born had the tears, thou who hast brought us thus far on the ty. Let our re - joic - ing rise high as the lis - tening died. Yet, with a stead - y beat, have not our wea - ry skies; let it re - sound loud as the roll - ing sea.

 feet come to the place for which our par - ents sighed?
 light, keep us for - ev - er in the path, we pray.

Sing a song full of the faith that the dark past has taught us;
 We have come o - ver a way that with tears has been wa - tered;
 Lest our feet stray from the plac - es, our God, where we met thee;

sing a song full of the hope that the pres - ent has brought we have come, tread - ing our path through the blood of the slaugh - lest, our hearts drunk with the wine of the world, we for - get us. Fac - ing the ris - ing sun of our new day be - thee; shad - owed be - neath thy hand may we for - ev - er gun, let us march on, till vic - to - ry is won.

 last where the white gleam of our bright star is cast.
 stand, true to our God, true to our na - tive land.

Initially a poem for a school assembly at which Booker T. Washington spoke on Lincoln's birthday in 1900, this text and tune have gained national recognition and devotion, not only within the African American community, but also among all who seek liberation from oppression.

Please know that, in recording all the parts of this liturgy — spoken, sung and played — we have carefully observed responsible norms of social distancing.

Please join in reading or singing those parts of the service printed in bold.

The season of Lent

is often marked by a journey: our traveling from the mountaintop of transfiguration back into the treacherous terrain leading to Holy Week and Easter. Turning to the cross leads us to reflect, remember, repent, and then reclaim our identity as children of God. We welcome you as you listen for God's invitation in your life.

GATHERING

WELCOME AND LIFE IN THE CHURCH

OPENING VOLUNTARY Adagio in F Minor

Adolphus Hailstork

CALL TO WORSHIP

One: When the tide rose, when the wind picked up, when the sky darkened,

All: we longed for the shelter of Your wings, O God.

One: When the time thickened, when the need increased,
when the worry grew,

All: we prayed for Your peace beyond the reach of our understanding.

One: When the path turned toward the wilderness,
when the way forward was unsure,

All: we stretched our hearts toward Your light, and listened for Your voice.

One: Only call us to turn again to You, O God,

All: and we will turn our hearts and mend our lives.

One: We lean on You in hope, in trust, in love –

All: O Lord, hear our prayers, our praise, our promises, in the name of Jesus Christ, and all that is sacred to us.

HYMN 339

Lift Every Voice and Sing

LIFT EVERY VOICE

This hymn is found on the preceding pages of this bulletin.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

O God, we are in the habit of counting our losses:
what we have missed, or sacrificed, or suffered.

We are well-acquainted with the costs of living.

And while our attention is focused on what we've given up or let go of,
we have failed to notice all that You have given back to us.

You have invited us to turn away from self-absorption, toward new ways of trusting You.

You have promised us life, and life abundant,

And urged us to use that life in new ways of service to the world.

We confess that we have been too distracted or discouraged to receive and embrace what You've promised.

We have been slow to acknowledge all that You have given,
all that You offer.

Open us, in these moments of prayer,

to be filled with Your renewing, empowering love in Jesus Christ –

SILENT PRAYER

KYRIE

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

PASSING OF THE PEACE

CONGREGATIONAL RESPONSE

This is Stanza 4 of Hymn 444, Forgive Our Sins as We Forgive (DETROIT).

PROCLAIMING THE WORD

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

FIRST SCRIPTURE READING Genesis 9:8–17

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

A CONVERSATION WITH YOUNG DISCIPLES

SECOND SCRIPTURE READING Mark 1:9–15

The grass withers, the flower fades;

the word of the Lord endures forever.

SERMON

Emerging

The Kyrie we sing this morning was written by Dinah Reindorf after a World Council of Churches gathering in Geneva, Switzerland. As a part of their worship, participants in the gathering took a blindfolded "passion walk" as pilgrims meditating on Christ's journey to the cross. The melody is intended to reflect a pilgrim's slow walk through Lent. The Greek "Kyrie eleison" is translated as "Lord Have Mercy."

At First Pres, we strive to use inclusive language for God.

The use of only masculine nouns and pronouns for God and of masculine generic terms for humankind has hidden the rich feminine imagery for God and God's people in scripture. The rediscovery of the complementarity of female and male metaphors in the Bible and the literature of the early church forbids Christians to settle for literary poverty in the midst of literary riches.

A portion of the Sacrament of Baptism will be presented in Spanish. During Covid times, our worship has extended all over the world. The inclusion of Spanish allows us to extend God's love and invitation to God's Table to family in Venezuela as they join us in worship.

The Spanish translation is from the Book of Common Worship.

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Daniel and Rebeca Torres-Davenport present their daughter Evelia Anna Torres-Davenport, born August 14, 2020, for baptism.

Affirmation of Faith The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

OFFERING OF TITHES AND GIFTS

Prayer of Dedication

Offertory Jesus Walked This Lonesome Valley Kenneth Dake
Heidi Hess-Willis, soloist

Jesus walked this lonesome valley,
he had to walk it by himself.
Oh, nobody else could walk it for him,
he had to walk it by himself.

When you walk the vale of shadows,
fear not the trials waiting there.
For Jesus himself, he walks beside you holding your heart with his in prayer.

Doxology

OLD HUNDREDTH

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below;
Praise God above, ye heavenly host;
Creator, Christ, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE AND THE LORD'S PRAYER (New Zealand)

Our Father in heaven,
Eternal Spirit, Earth-maker, Pain-bearer, Life-giver
Source of all that is and that shall be,
Father and Mother of us all,
Loving God, in whom is heaven:
hallowed be your name.
The hallowing of your name echo through the universe.

Use these offertory moments to savor your gratitude for the abundance of God's love — and to consider your own response in loving service. As you consider making your offering, remember that the church's regular expenses continue in these difficult times. And the community around us needs your financial support: your faithful giving is like the breath of life to mission programs we love, neighbors in need, members who are hurting. Thank you for your faithful generosity!

Ways to give: online on the First Pres homepage ... via "Text-to-Give" (855-904-1523) ... use our Give+ app ... put a check in the mail ... or scan the QR code below.

The text for the second stanza of the Offertory is by Richard Spalding.

The Lord's Prayer is the form of Christian practice that, for many, connects Jesus most directly to his followers. It's included in 3 of the 4 gospels – but with slight differences. It's been translated into countless languages and adapted into the devotions of many cultures. To honor the diversity of the Christian family through time and across cultures (and to remind ourselves that the English words we know so well are not what came out of Jesus's mouth!), we'll be using different versions of the Lord's Prayer each week during Lent. (We'll return to our most familiar version on Easter.)

the organ voluntaries this morning are by the African-American composer Adolphus Hailstork. Born in Rochester, N.Y., in 1941, he received his doctorate in composition from Michigan State University where he was a student of H. Owen Reed. He also studied with Nadia Boulanger, David Diamond, and Mark Fax. Dr. Hailstork is professor of music at Old Dominion University in Norfolk, Va.

Your kingdom come,
The way of your justice be followed by the peoples of the world!
 Your will be done,
Your heavenly will be done by all created beings!
 On earth as in heaven.
Your commonwealth of peace and freedom sustain our hope and come on earth.
 Give us today our daily bread.
With the bread we need for today, feed us.
 Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
In the hurts we absorb from one another, forgive us.
 Save us from the time of trial
In times of temptation and test, strengthen us,
From trials too great to endure, spare us,
 and deliver us from evil.
From the grip of all that is evil, free us.
 For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours now and forever.
For you reign in the glory of the power that is love, now and forever.
Amen.

WELCOME TO WORSHIP!

LENT '21 – GIVEN BACK

Lent is the name we give to our Christian journey through the dark, cold days of winter and the long, long wait for spring. It's a season that can try one's patience and stir one's restlessness. So maybe it's not surprising that the spiritual practices we associate with the season are renunciation and repentance. The mood of austerity seems well-tuned particularly to this year when we've had so much taken from us: it seems like we've already given up a lot as we embark on the pilgrimage of Lent this year.

But...

The journey itself is powered, isn't it, by our being drawn toward a God who fills us – who welcomes us – who believes in us! It's because we long to be closer to God, closer to each other, closer to our best self, that we follow where Jesus leads. Day by day we're being given love, given life, offered a vision of right relationship by the one who says, "Come unto me" – the one who says, "Love one another as I have loved you" – the one who says, "I came that you might have life, and have it abundantly."

The Christian journey is not so much about taking stock of what we need to give up – it's about what has been given back! And about what we, in turn, give back.

So Lent at First Pres this year will give us opportunities to consider what we've been given back by the God who calls us forward, onward in spite of the dark and cold and uncertainty and, even, the struggle of our time. And, having been given back a sense of invitation into God's embrace, we'll find that we're motivated, in turn, to give back: to live with compassion, to advocate for justice, to share hope and joy.

Lenten Study Series: Giving Back Compassion (Sunday, February 21 – Sunday, March 28)

Lent is a season traditionally marked by sacrifice, but after a year that has forced us to sacrifice so much, what if instead we viewed Lent as a season marked by compassion and fullness through personal devotion and study? Drawing from Scripture and Henri Nouwen's Compassion: A Reflection on the Christian Life, we will take a critical look at ourselves and explore the various ways Jesus is calling us to lives of compassion.

Join us in two different settings: in small groups throughout the week where participants will gather by Zoom and explore compassion in our lives and on Sunday mornings where participants, led by church pastors, will explore the meaning of compassion in our lives and engage in spiritual practices together. For more information and to sign up for a small group, check our website or contact the Church Office.
