Making God's Love Visible

1 For the beau - ty of the earth, for the glo - ry of the skies,
 2 For the won - der of each hour of the day and of the night,
 3 For the joy of ear and eye, for the heart and mind's de - light,
 4 For the joy of hu - man love, broth - er, sis - ter, par - ent, child,
 5 For thy - self, best gift di - vine to the world so free - ly given;

for the love which from our birth o - ver and a - round us lies:
 hill and vale, and tree and flower, sun and moon, and stars of light:
 for the mys - tic har - mo - ny link - ing sense to sound and sight:
 friends on earth, and friends a - bove, for all gen - tle thoughts and mild:
 for that great, great love of thine, peace on earth and joy in heaven:

Refrain

Lord of all, to thee we raise this our hymn of grate - ful praise.

Please know that, in recording all the parts of this liturgy — spoken, sung and played — we have carefully observed responsible norms of social distancing.

Please join in reading or singing those parts of the service printed in bold.

The season of Lent is often marked by a journey: our traveling from the mountaintop of transfiguration back into the treacherous terrain leading to Holy Week and Easter. Turning to the cross leads us to reflect, remember, repent, and then reclaim our identity as children of God. We welcome you as you listen for God's invitation in your life.

GATHERING

WELCOME AND LIFE IN THE CHURCH

OPENING VOLUNTARY

CALL TO WORSHIP

One: Heaven is declaring God's glory;

All: the sky proclaiming God's handiwork.

One: One day gushes the news to the next,

All: and one night informs the other what needs to be known.

One: There is no speech, there are no words;

All: their voices cannot be heard by us.

One: Yet their sound extends throughout the world;

All: their words reach the ends of the earth!

HYMN 14

For the Beauty of the Earth

DIX

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Merciful God, how fickle we are; we sin against you without even knowing it. Clear us, we pray, of any unknown sin, and save us from willingly ignoring your way. Forgive us for failing to honor all our relationships; with those closest to us and those who are distant neighbors. Help us speak words of blessing and kindness, rather than words that belittle and destroy. Forgive us for thinking everything depends on our efforts and power, for you are the God who made us, led us out of Egypt, and has brought us into the community of faith. Help us to depend on you alone and to rest in your peace. In Christ's name we pray...

SILENT PRAYER

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

This is Hymn 582, Glory to God, Whose Goodness Shines on Me (GLORY TO GOD).

PROCLAIMING THE WORD

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

FIRST SCRIPTURE READING Psalm 19

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

A CONVERSATION WITH YOUNG DISCIPLES

SECOND SCRIPTURE READING John 2:13–22

The grass withers, the flower fades;

the word of the Lord endures forever.

SERMON

At First Pres, we strive to use inclusive language for God.

The use of only masculine nouns and pronouns for God and of masculine generic terms for humankind has hidden the rich feminine imagery for God and God's people in scripture. The rediscovery of the complementarity of female and male metaphors in the Bible and the literature of the early church forbids Christians to settle for literary poverty in the midst of literary riches.

OFFERING OF TITHES AND GIFTS

Prayer of Dedication

Offertory The Heavens Are Telling

F.J. Haydn

Soloists: Imani Mchunu, David Magumba, Benton DeGroot

The heavens are telling the glory of God,
 The wonder of God's work displays the firmament.

To day that is coming speaks it the day,
 The night that is gone to following night.

In all the lands resounds the word,
 Never unperceived, ever understood.

The heavens are telling the glory of God,
 The wonder of God's work displays the firmament.

Use these offertory moments to savor your gratitude for the abundance of God's love — and to consider your own response in loving service. As you consider making your offering, remember that the church's regular expenses continue in these difficult times. And the community around us needs your financial support: your faithful giving is like the breath of life to mission programs we love, neighbors in need, members who are hurting. Thank you for your faithful generosity!

Ways to give: online on the First Pres homepage ... via "Text-to-Give" (855-904-1523) ... use our Give+ app ... put a check in the mail ... or scan the QR code below.

SACRAMENT OF HOLY COMMUNION

During his ministry, Jesus shared meals as a sign of community and acceptance. As we gather for communion, know that you are welcome in this community and accepted at Christ's table.

"As this broken bread scattered on the mountains was gathered and became one, so too, may your Church be gathered together from the ends of the earth into your kingdom." – The Didache, one of the earliest Christian texts.

The Lord's Prayer is the form of Christian practice that, for many, connects Jesus most directly to his followers. It's included in 3 of the 4 gospels – but with slight differences. It's been translated into countless languages and adapted into the devotions of many cultures. To honor the diversity of the Christian family through time and across cultures (and to remind ourselves that the English words we know so well are not what came out of Jesus's mouth!), we'll be using different versions of the Lord's Prayer each week during Lent. This week's adaptation is by Lyn Seils Robertson. (We'll return to our most familiar version on Easter.)

Invitation to the Lord's Table

Great Prayer of Thanksgiving and the Lord's Prayer

One: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

One: Lift up your hearts.

All: We lift them up to the Lord.

One: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Our Father/Mother who art in heaven,

Our Creator, you are all around us and within us.

Hallowed be thy name.

We praise you with many different names.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done.

Help us live as we understand we should from knowing you in harmony and connectedness with each other,

on earth as it is in heaven.

With all creatures of the earth, and with the earth and the universe itself.

Give us this day our daily bread,

Help us to use your resources wisely so that we might be sustained.

And forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.

Help us take responsibility when we fail to live harmoniously, and help us understand and forgive when others let us down.

And lead us not into temptation,

Let us know you well enough that we are not tempted to live outside of your love.

but deliver us from evil,

and empower us to work together to overcome evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever.

We believe that you created the world and that you will be all around us and within us forever. Amen.

WELCOME TO WORSHIP!

LENT '21 – GIVEN BACK

Lent is the name we give to our Christian journey through the dark, cold days of winter and the long, long wait for spring. It's a season that can try one's patience and stir one's restlessness. So maybe it's not surprising that the spiritual practices we associate with the season are renunciation and repentance. The mood of austerity seems well-tuned particularly to this year when we've had so much taken from us: it seems like we've already given up a lot as we embark on the pilgrimage of Lent this year.

But...

The journey itself is powered, isn't it, by our being drawn toward a God who fills us – who welcomes us – who believes in us! It's because we long to be closer to God, closer to each other, closer to our best self, that we follow where Jesus leads. Day by day we're being given love, given life, offered a vision of right relationship by the one who says, "Come unto me" – the one who says, "Love one another as I have loved you" – the one who says, "I came that you might have life, and have it abundantly."

The Christian journey is not so much about taking stock of what we need to give up – it's about what has been given back! And about what we, in turn, give back.

So Lent at First Pres this year will give us opportunities to consider what we've been given back by the God who calls us forward, onward in spite of the dark and cold and uncertainty and, even, the struggle of our time. And, having been given back a sense of invitation into God's embrace, we'll find that we're motivated, in turn, to give back: to live with compassion, to advocate for justice, to share hope and joy.

The majority of this food goes to Cass Community Social Services in Detroit where it is put to immediate use. Volunteers with vans, mini-vans, and SUVs are needed on Tuesday and Friday mornings to assist and to drive this valuable food to Detroit. Contact Don Redding (734-276-8426) or Rev.
